

Workers need a voice on the job

Across Canada, things are getting harder for people in all sorts of jobs. But the reality is, it doesn't need to be this way – you can be part of making positive changes.

More and more people support the work that unions are doing to make changes workers need.

Non-Unionized Workers

- ✗ Raises are not predictable or guaranteed.
- ✗ Your employer can make changes to wages, benefits or working conditions without your consent or input.
- ✗ Speaking up can have consequences.
- ✗ Management calls all the shots and makes all decisions.
- ✗ You must plead your own case.
- ✗ Respect depends on if you have a good manager.
- ✗ You can be unfairly disciplined or fired, for any reason, at any time.

Don't you deserve better work now?

You have the support of professional advocates and legal counsel.

You have fairness and respect at work.

You have security through a formal process to dispute unjust or arbitrary discipline.

Why join the United Steelworkers?

The USW is the largest private-sector union in North America, with more than 225,000 members across Canada.

Every year, thousands of workers choose to join the USW because of our strong track record of creating safer workplaces, and negotiating better working conditions and fairer compensation.
